THE ERIE RAILWAY WAR.

Motion to Compel Gould to Pay Up-Argument of Counsel.

Yesterday the case of Heath and Raphael vs. Jay Gould, Frederick A. Lane and James Fisk, Jr., and the other managers and directors of the road, came on for argument before Judge Blatchford in the United States Circuit Court. The case was brought on by motion on the part of Heath and Raphael to oblige Jay Gould to restore to the hands of the reoblige Jay Gould to restore to the hands of the re-ceiver 30,000 shares of Erie stock which, it is charged, he lilegally abstracted from the receiver-sing; and also to forbid the Erie company from en-larging the registration of this stock at the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company by putting upon it certain stock which was improperly, and, as alleged, fraud-mently issued in connection with the abstraction of the Heath and Raphael stock.

Mr. Everts and Mr. Southmayd appeared as coun-sel for Heath and Raphael, and Mr. Stonghton, Mr. Beach, Mr. Morgan and Mr. Lane for Erie and Jay Gould.

Gould.

Mr. Beach asked for a delay of the motion, urging that the original order of the Court for the absolute handing over of the certificates of stock was afterwards modified, and the Master was authorized to wards modified, and the master was authorized to ascertain and report as to the validity of the 30,000 shares alleged to have been issued by the Eric Com-pany, and registered on the basis of 30,000 of the 60,000 shares in the hands of the receiver. The reference before the Master was not completed in the case of fleath and Raphael on Tuesday last. An application had been made for leave to prove the ownership of the stock in litigation; but this was not allowed. had been made for leave to prove the ownership of the stock in litigation; but this was not allowed. His present motion was upon papers which had been served upon him on Monday evening at six o'clock, and since them Mr. Gould had had no oppor-tunity to examine them. Counsel urged the sus-pension of proceedings until the Master's report had been sent in, and read affidavits from Mr. William H. Morgan, attorney for the Eric Railway Company, and Mr. Gould, stating that the time afforded for ex-amination of the papers was insufficient. The merits of the litigation were involved in this motion. Mr. Gould had no desire to delay or hinder the trial, but merely wished for time to examine the papers upon which the application was sought to be sus-tained.

apon which the application was sought to be sustained.

Mr. Southmayd said that the purport of the application was not correctly stated. It was note motion to compel good to deliver up property which he claims as his own, but to restore to the possession of the court $0,000 shares of stock which were in its possession, and which he abstracted without color of an excuse. Mr. Gould must be familiar with the contents of all the papers, and there was nothing in the case but the naked outrage of the abstraction of the stock from the receiver. Mr. Gould never could realize any ofence he had committed until he was brought into court to receive punishment. Mr. Gould now found himself in a tight place. He tried to postpone the issue; but those who had been robbed had some rights, and the court, whose dignity was outraged, was bound to look to the matter at once.

Mr. Beach argued that there was no evidence to show that Gould ever interfered with the stock in the possession of the court. He merely used 30,000 shares of stock in the possession of the tree Railway tompany as the basis of the registration for these new certificates. The Eric company wanted to bring the property back to its true owners and prevent Heath and Raphael from taking this stock to England in defiance of the rights of resident American owners. Fisk and Gould were owners of a large amount of this very stock, and they asked an oppornity to assert their title to it, and for doing this they are accessed of being robbers and thieves. He asked for a delay to enable him to meet the motion properly and arrive at the truth at the bottom of this litigation.

The Judge said he would grant the delay and decided that Mr. Southmayd might make the opening statement now for Heath and Raphael and an adjournment could be had until Thursday to hear the argument for the Eric company.

Air. Southmayd then read the opening papers for Heath and Raphael.

Mr. Beach read amdavits from Jay Gould, James Fisk and Justin D. White. In the amdavit of Gould it was stated that an offer had been made by an agent of Heath and Raphael for a settlement of this hitigation, and that after negotation had proceeded in regard to this proposed settlement it was broken on.

Mr. Southmayd said he should like to know who

Mr. Southmayd said he should like to know who on.

Mr. Southmayd said he should like to know who the agent referred to was.

Mr. Beach replied that the name of the gentleman was advisedly omitted from motives of delicacy.

The Judge—if the name is not stated in the amdavit the Court will pay no attention.

Mr. Beach—I am now informed that the name of the gentleman is Mr. James Thompson.

Mr. Beach—I am now informed that the name of the gentleman is Mr. James Thompson.

The Judge—the Court can take no notice of it unless the name is stated in the affidavit.

Mr. Southmayd then opened his argument for Heath and disphael. He said:—What was the status of funds piaced in the hands of a receiver appointed by a court, and what was to be done with a person who fraudulently or injuriously dealt win funds so placed? He quoted opinions of Chancellor Walworth bearing on these points. Property was in the hands of a receiver, and it was taken out of the receiver's hands upon a distress warrant for rent. As the property was in the legal possession of the court through its officer it was a contempt of court, to remove it, and, though the landlord might have been mistaken as to his rights, the order of the Court was that it should be restored within twenty days by the party who took it, though he was not a party to the suit, yet had a prior legal claim to it. Any one who took such property was obliged to put it back again. Any man who interfered with property in the hands of a court rendered himself hable for it, and when he was called upon to restore it he could not throw himself back on his common law right. If a man abstracted property from a court and had fuel enough to keep the fire of litigation going for ten years the wrong would last for a long time; but the court would compei him to restore it or go to prison until he did. Through the ingenuity and unserpinousness of Mr. Jay Gould litigation might be extended for five years. Counsel charged that Jay Gould should be held personally responsible for the austraction of this stock, which he had wrongfully taken.

Ar. Sonthmayd's argument was then, at four clock, adjourned until Monday, with the undertanding that the reference before the Master canot be closed until the present motion shall be dis-

Swindling the Faro Banks-Novel Maurer of "Bucking the Tiger"-Another Bad Lawyer-Kelso on the Social Evil-A Test Case.

On the 18th of June a man named Morris Levy, living at 699 Second avenue, instituted a complaint before Judge Hogan, at the Tombs Police Court, against William Lovell, Redmond MacManus and John Shaw, proprietors of a gambling house kept on the southeast corner of Grand street and the Bowery. Levy stated toat in November last he had gone into this saloon and lost $200 at the game of faro. Upon this information Judge Hogan issued a warrant for the arrest of these men and all others to be found on the premises. This warrant was sent to Superintendent Kelso, and by him placed in the hands of Captain Ward, of the Tenth precinct. On the night of the 15th Captain Ward made a raid on the place and together with the dealer, Charles Herman, and the acting banker. Henry Jones. The parties who owned the nouse were not there, and consequently could not be arrested. The following morning these men were brought before his Honor who discharged all of them except the dealer and banker. These he held to answer in $500 ball. In the course of the afternoon of the 14th the owners of the fare bank came into court and bailed out their employés. They then informed the Judge that the man Levy had never lest any such sum of money in their place to their kowiedge, and, furthermore, they had a shrews subsicion that he was going around the city to all the faro banks endeavoring to extors money from the proprietors under the pretence that he had lost money in their houses; and he threatened if they did not return him some portion of the amount he named he would proceed against them according to law to recover the whole amount. In support of this statement they named the Justice a letter from a law firm engaged by tals man, of which the following is a copy: had never lest any such sum of money in their

These gentlemen—Loveil, McManus and Snaw—had taken the trouble to go to some of the other faro bank owners who they believed were marked out by this worthy firm for blackmailing and got from each of them the letters they had received from Van Cott for Levy. of the intended swindle. The names of the men to whom these letters are addressed are held back for obvious reasons, but the communications themselves are stereotyped. The one given is an exact copy of the entire number. The only difference is in the names of the parties to whom they are addressed, the dates and the amounts stated to have been lost. One is addressed May 27, No. 25 Chambers street, and the sum named is $10,000. Another is June 15. Then there are others dated May 20, May 30, one June 17, and so on up to the time of the raid in the Bowery and for some days after. The sums stated to have been lost vary from five to ten thousand dollars.

THE BANK STATEMENT.

The weekly statement of the associated banks shows no important change in their standing. The stock market was excited, feverish and trregular, seldom standing at the same stage of prices for more than a few minutes at a time. Before the board there was a general decline all around, and the lowest prices of the week were reached in most instances. Here the "shorts" began to cover in deference to the propriety of being disinterested in stocks over the Sabbath, and a sharp re action ensued. The recovery was not uniform, however, Northwest falling to 72 as the general market ever, Northwest falling to 72 as the general market rose, led by Ohio and Mississippi, which was rather brilliantly railied by its clique to 45%.
